Dr Zlata Djuric was born on October 22, 1965. in Kragujevac, where she finished elementary and high school with great success. Faculty of Natural Sciences and Mathematics in Kragujevac, Department of Mathematics, enrolled in 1984 and graduated in 1988 with an average grade of 8.05. After graduation she worked for two years in the economy.

Postgraduate studies – study programme in Mathematical Analysis, enrolled in 1991 and finished with an average grade of 10.00 and a thesis thesis, entitled Approximation of Elements of a Class of Periodic Functions by Transformations of Partial Sums of Their Furrier Rows, defended at the Faculty of Science and Mathematics in Kragujevac in 1995.

Worked at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac in 1991, as an teaching assistant. Since 1996 she has worked as an assistant in Mathematics in Economics and Financial and Actuarial Mathematics. In the period from 2002 to 2005, she participated in the implementation of the project entitled Development of Corporate Governance in Transition Conditions, funded by the Ministry of Science, Technology and Development of the Government of the Republic of Serbia. The doctoral dissertation titled Mathematical-Statistical Methods and Models for Forming Technical Reserves in Non-Life Insurance was defended in 2015 at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac. Since 2016 she has been working as an assistant professor in the subjects of Insurance and Financial and Actuarial Mathematics.