

Jasmina Bogićević was born on February 24th, 1966, in Čacak. She finished primary and secondary school in Cacak, as the best pupil of generation. She finished undergraduate studies of Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac in 1990. with a GPA of 8.81. For the achieved success during the studies, she was rewarded by University, as the best student in class. She finished Master Studies of Faculty of Economics, University of Belgrade, Department of Financial-Accounting Analysis with a GPA of 9.88. She defended her thesis entitled The Role of Accounting in the assessment of company creditworthiness in 1995. She defended PhD thesis entitled Foreign currency translation and hedging in international accounting at Faculty of Economics, University of Novi Sad in 2011.

She employed as a teaching assistant on the subjects Theory and methodology of accounting, Financial accounting, Financial bookkeeping and Governmental and tax accounting at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac. She became assistant professor at the subjects Financial bookkeeping and Governmental and tax accounting in 2012. She became associate professor in 2016. In addition to her engagement at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac, she realized her teaching activities in the Belgrade High Business School (1998-1999), in the High Business School of Applied Studies in Valjevo (2004-2008). She has been engaged in Basics of accounting and Financial management at the Faculty of Technical Sciences, University of Kragujevac. She was a researcher on the basic research project Development of Corporate Governance in Transition Economies (1476), funded by the Ministry of Science and Environmental Protection. She attended the London Business School and the London School of Economics and Political Science for the purpose of scientific-professional training.

She is the author and co-author of a number of scientific and professional papers published in the country and abroad, in the field of accounting, and has been a reviewer of renowned scientific journals and proceedings. She was member of the Board of directors and Vice president of the Audit Committee of Čačanska banka a.d. Čačak. Since 2015. she is the member of the Board of directors and the Audit Committee of HALKBANK a.d. Beograd.