

BIOGRAPHY

Violeta Todorović was born on 29 January in Kruševac. She completed elementary school in Padež as a holder of Vuk Karadžić diploma and high school in Kruševac, as a holder of Vuk Karadžić diploma as well.

She enrolled in the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac in academic year 1991/92 and graduated at the Department of Finance and Accounting in 1996 as a valedictorian with grade point average 9.32. She defended her bachelor thesis entitled “Stocks and bonds as capital market instruments” within the scope of the subject Banking organization and operations on 30 August 1996 with grade 10.

After completing bachelor studies, she enrolled in postgraduate studies at the Department of monetary, banking and financial management of the Faculty of Economics in Belgrade in academic year 1996/97. She passed all exams included in the curriculum with grade point average 9.87. She defended her master thesis entitled “Theoretical and methodological problems of testing the financial performance of banks” on 13 February 2003, based on a unanimous decision of the Expert committee. She defended her doctoral dissertation entitled “Banking regulations and banking crises” at the Faculty of Economics in Kragujevac on 31 January 2011.

Her employment at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Kragujevac started in November 1997. On 10 November 1997 she was appointed to the position of an assistant trainee teaching within the scope of the subject Banking organization and operations. In June 2003 she was appointed as a teaching assistant of the same subject. In July 2008 she was reappointed as a teaching assistant of Banking organization and operations and Banking. In June 2011 she was appointed to the position of an assistant professor in the specialized field of Finance, financial institutions and insurance within the scope of the subject Banking. In February 2016 she was appointed to the position of an associate professor.

Within the Scientific Research Cycle 2011-2015, she participated in the implementation of the project "Improving public policies in Serbia in the function of improving the social security of citizens and sustainable economic growth" (No. 47004) of the Ministry of Education, Science and Technological Development of the Republic of Serbia.

She is a member of the Commission for undergraduate and master academic studies at the Faculty of Economics University of Kragujevac and the Head of Finance, stock markets and banking teaching module within study program Economics. She is a member of editorial board for scientific journal Economic horizons, published by Faculty of Economics University of Kragujevac. She is a member of the Council of Faculty of Economics University of Kragujevac.

The main areas of scientific interest are banking crises, banking regulations, bank performance management, and risk management of financial institutions.

She has been the author and coauthor of a number of scientific papers. She has participated in national and international conferences. She has achieved remarkable results in the course of her work with students, which has been confirmed by the results of the survey of students.