

Nenad Tomić

He was born on 14.08.1987 . in Kragujevac. He graduated from Elementary School " Svetozar Markovic" and high school Prva kragujevacka gimnazija with honors.

He enrolled Faculty of Economics, University of Kragujevac in the academic year 2006/07 in the department of the finance and stock markets, and graduated in 2010 with an average score of 9.47.

He enrolled Master studies in the academic year 2010/11 at the State University of Tor Vergata in Rome, Italy. He Completed master's degree in 2011 at the department of the European economy, finance and institutions.

He enrolled doctoral studies at the Faculty of Economics , University of Kragujevac in the academic year 2011/12, at the module Macroeconomics.

During the academic year 2011/12, he volunteered as the teaching assistant on the courses of Electronic banking and Financial markets and financial instruments.

He was appointed to the position of a teaching assistant in March 2013 on the courses of Payments system (formerly Electronic banking) and Electronic payment systems. He also taught the course Financial markets and financial instruments in period 2012 - 2014 by the decision of the faculty board. In March 2016 he was reappointed to the position of a teaching assistant. He has been teaching the course Banking since the academic year 2014/2015 by the decision of the faculty board.

During his studies he was elected for two terms for the student vice-dean. He was beneficiary of many scholarships funds - Scholarship Fund for Scientific and Artistic Youth, Scholarship Fund for young talents, Scholarship for PhD students - researchers, and also has been awarded as the best student of the department in 1998-2010 period.

The main areas of scientific research are electronic money and electronic payment systems, electronic banking and technology innovation in finance.

He posses skills for computer working and English language skills.